2023 Waukesha Christmas Parade
Sunday, December 3rd
Drivers Needed

The Parade theme this year is “A Holiday Gem” and the City of Waukesha will be celebrating the parades 60th anniversary. The route this year will once again be different due to safety protocols. We will decorate our cars in the Christmas spirit, organizers of the parade have asked if we could have holiday appropriate lighting on our cars. The weather at the parade has been in our favor nearly every year and I am confident this year will be too. A portion of the proceeds from this year's parade will be donated to local community organizations as directed by the City of Waukesha Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

The parade starts at 4:00 p.m. so we plan on heading to the staging area at about 3:00 p.m. This will give us plenty of time to decorate our cars, look at the other participants floats, listen to the bands play some seasonal music and visit with each other at this last outdoor event. For those interested in driving to the parade together, we will meet at Culvers Restaurant at 840 W. Sunset Ave. Waukesha between 2:15 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. for some hot chocolate before we head over to the staging area at 3:00 p.m. If you have any questions, please feel free to give Dave or Linda a call at 262-719-1056.

We look forward to seeing you there!!!

Dave and Linda Huenink!!

Christmas Party

December 10, 1:30 p.m.

This year we'll have a white elephant gift exchange for the adults. Each person wanting to play along should bring one wrapped gift to contribute to the gift table. Ideas for gifts are anything funny, old or weird and there's nothing wrong with genuinely nice gift, especially since it has the potential to fuel a lot of competition during the game.

There will be crafts and Santa for the kids. Kids and grandkids must be 12 and under. RSVP for the kids is required, as the elves need to pack Santa's sleigh. Please send me then following information: Childs name, age, hobbies, likes, dislikes and gift ideas by December 1st.

Send them to: wheelingthea@yahoo.com

Everyone is asked to bring a plate of cookies/bars, hors d'oeuvres, or snack for the table. This is not a meal.

Canine Nose Work Presentation and Demonstration

Club Indoor meeting

February 11, 2024, 1:30 p.m.

Have you ever wondered when a dog is intently sniffing the ground, what and how they are smelling. All of us have seen on T.V. or in person, dogs searching for something using their nose.

Nose work is an upcoming and fun canine sport / activity.

Nose work, also called scent work, is a companion dog sport where dogs are able to use their innate and amazing sense of smell and natural hunt drive, to find “hides” in a variety of locations and environments requiring a range of problem-solving skills. Based on professional dog detection, nose work uses essential oils as target odors. These odors include birch, anise, clove, cypress and vetiver. It’s a fun and addictive sport as handler start to understand and appreciate the beauty of this incredible talent dogs have to detect and follow a miniscule vapor of odor back to its source. Dogs love it because it’s what they are born to do regardless of age, breed, temperament, size or condition. It has been demonstrated that shy, fearful, and even reactive dogs can build the confidence to help overcome some of their challenges in the engagement of this highly enriching game.

We’ll take you through benefits of nose work, its history, how dogs smells compared to humans, interesting facts and how a dog searches.

After learning about the background of nose work, we will provide a short demonstration with one of our dogs. Come and join us for an informative, fun filled presentation.

Dave & Linda Huenink along with one of our sniffing terriers.

PLACES LOST TO HISTORY

INDOOR MEETING

SUNDAY MARCH 10TH 2024

1:30P.M.

Take your PrevaGen and put on your thinking caps. Join us in remembering the places we use to visit and now are gone. We will be going back over eighty years and up to the present day. Regardless of your age, there are restaurants, movie theaters, malls, car dealers, etc. that have all been pasted into the history books. Come join us for what should be an afternoon filled with fond memories.

MAFCA Wisconsin Chapter General Meeting Minutes

November 12th, 2023

Board Members Present: Dave Huenink, Karen Schmiechen, Tony Koconis, Steve Lewis, Mark Ackermann, Robert Sturtzen. Absent: Mike Quam

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 P.M.

President – Karen for Mike – The veterans were asked to stand so they could be recognized and thanked for their service. Several new members attended this meeting, and they were asked to stand so they could be recognized. The Model A Ford Youth Restoration group sent the club a thank you note for the $500.00 donation the club gave them. The club also received the MAFFI newsletter.

Vice President – Karen – There were no new members this month.

Secretary – Dave – A request by Karen Schmiechen was made to read the minutes from the last meeting to the group. A motion was made by Dave Neuman and seconded by Ed Schultz to accept the March 12th, 2023, meeting minutes as written. The motion was put to a vote, and it was carried. The membership, lifetime members and Board members need to fill out the new renewal form, so our database has the correct information. The club has forty-six members who have renewed their membership as of this meeting. Several of the club members are using the old renewal forms when sending in their dues along with the incorrect amount of dues. A review of the new renewal form was done, and questions were answered. Several members believe they need to belong to MAFFA to belong to our group. A member does NOT need to belong to MAFCA to belong to our club.

Treasurer – Steve – A report of the revenue and expenses from last month was given. A motion was made by Paul Piotrowski and seconded by Dave Boucher to accept the treasurer's report. The motion was put to a vote, and it carried. Vicki Cooper turned in income. Our financial reserves are down $16,000.00 from pre-covid due to a variety of reasons.

Indoor– Robert – The balance of the indoor events for the 2023/2024 are filled. The club is looking for hosts for the 2024/2025 indoor season.

Outdoor – Mark – The signup sheet for the 2024 outdoor touring season is available. May already has a host.

Sunshine/awards – Tony – Tony is working on the awards for 2023.

Old Business – None

New Business – Karen asked if anyone was interested in running for the Board. She spoke about the benefits of being on the Board. Vicki Cooper and Jeana Angelini gave an update on the swap meet. One hundred vendor spots of two hundred and twenty-four available have been sold. Karen has sent out fliers and letters to various car clubs, regarding the swap meet.

A motion was made by Jeana Angelini and seconded by Vicki Cooper to adjourn the meeting. The motion was put to a vote, and it was carried. The meeting was adjourned at 2:03 p.m.

The next indoor meeting will be December 10th, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

Dave Huenink

MAFCA – Wisconsin Chapter Secretary

These minutes have not yet been approved by the membership.

Presidents notes....

Hi Everyone,

A warm welcome to you all. I'm writing this on the eve of our departure from our winter home, soon its back to the cold weather. I probably shouldn't say this but... I have not worn a jacket yet in the month of November. I'm sure I will pay for this later!

As I read the minutes from the November meeting it looks like it was a good start to the indoor season. Please remember this newsletter is the last printed newsletter before we go to our digital format. I know change isn't always a welcome thing, but this will save the club a lot of money, give the editor more freedom with the page count and everyone will receive it as soon as it is completed. Everyone will receive their paper at the same time. Thank you to Lorraine Schultz and Marilyn Brojanac who have for 20+ years picked up the newsletters from printers, labeled them, taped them shut, put stamps on them and lugged them to the post office. Your dedication to the club is very appreciated!

I've heard that there is some confusion from people in the club that you must be a member of the national club to be a member of our club. Please be assured you do NOT need to be a member of a national club to be a member of our club. I have scoured the by-laws and nowhere is that mentioned.

The Christmas party is coming up quick, remember if you want to participate in the white elephant gift exchange you will need to bring a gift. So clean out the garage / basement or attic. Sometimes the oddest of funniest gifts are the hit of the party so let your imagination run wild but please keep it family friendly. Bring a snack or cookies for the snack table.

If you are interested in running for the Board of Directors contact me. We will need 2 people to come onto the board for 2024.

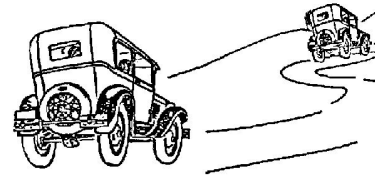

-Mike

Who was Edsel Ford?

Edsel Ford was born in November 1893 in Detroit. He was the only child of Clara and Henry Ford, being named for Edsel Ruddiman, one of Henry Ford's closest childhood friends. Edsel went to The Hotchkiss School, in Lakeville, Connecticut, and the Detroit University School. His family has donated to both institutions and the school library at Hotchkiss is named the Edsel Ford Memorial Library.

He was groomed to take over the family automobile business, and grew up tinkering on cars with his father. He became secretary of Ford in 1915, and married Eleanor Lowthian Clay (1896–1976), the niece of department store owner J. L. Hudson, on November 1, 1916. Together, they had four children: Henry Ford II, Benson Ford, Josephine Clay Ford, and William Clay Ford. They made their home at 2171 Iroquois Street, in the Indian Village neighborhood of Detroit.

In 1929, the Ford family moved into Gaukler Point, their new home designed by Albert Kahn, on the shores of Lake St. Clair in Grosse Pointe Shores, Michigan. The estate's gardens were designed by landscape architect Jens Jensen with his traditional long view, giving visitors a glimpse of the residence down the long meadow before revealing the entire house at drive's end. He also designed the gardens for Edsel and Eleanor's summer estate, Skylands in Seal Harbor on Mount Desert Island in Maine.

Edsel showed more interest than his father in flashier styling for automobiles and after becoming the president of Ford (1919), he advocated for the introduction of a more modern automobile to replace the Model T, but was repeatedly overruled by his father. He often disagreed with his father on major decisions, who occasionally humiliated him in public. Due to a dwindling market share the introduction of a new model was finally inevitable: the Model A.

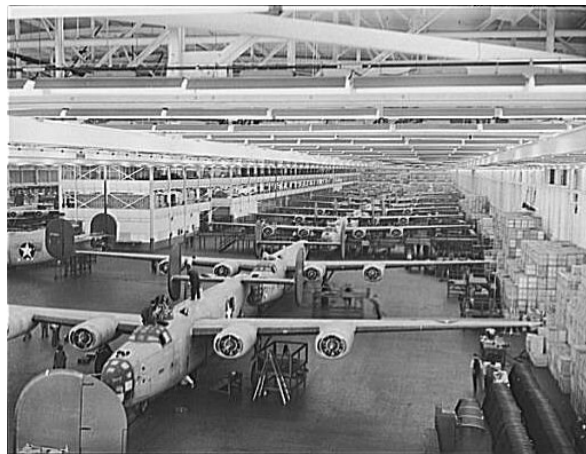

During the design of the Model A in 1927, Henry Ford assured mechanical quality and reliability, allowing his son to develop the body, with the help of designer József Galamb. Edsel also prevailed upon his father to allow the inclusion of four-wheel mechanical brakes and a sliding-gear transmission on this model. The resulting Model A was a commercial success, selling over four million during four years of production.

Edsel also had an affinity for sports cars, which was demonstrated in his personal vehicles: Edsel bought the first MG motorcar imported to the US. In 1932, he had an aluminum, boat-tailed speedster automobile custom-designed by Ford's first designer, E. T. (Bob) Gregorie and featuring Ford's brand-new V8, the first low-cost, eight-cylinder engine. This car was sold at an auction during the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance in 1976.

The relationship between the father and son was always close, but always fraught with unhealthy aspects. In spite of this, Edsel managed to introduce many lasting changes. In 1922 he purchased the Lincoln Motor Company. He also founded and named the Mercury division. He was responsible for the Lincoln-Zephyr and Continental. He significantly strengthened Ford Motors' overseas production, and modernized the company's cars, such as by introducing hydraulic brakes

As an early and enthusiastic advocate for aviation, Edsel insisted that the Ford Company should develop airplanes, over the initial objections of his father, who could not envision commercial applications for planes. After having huge success as the US Post Office's airmail carrier, Edsel's foresight was rewarded. The company was able to respond to the critical need for airplanes during WW2.

The Ford Motor Company played a key role in the arming of the US "Arsenal of Democracy". With Edsel leading the company, he set the goal of producing one bomber per hour at Ford's expansive Willow Run manufacturing complex, where the B-24 was produced. It was said that the stress of this job caused Edsel to become mortally ill.

Edsel Ford developed metastatic stomach cancer and undulant fever. Surgery for the cancer was unsuccessful due to the metastasis. Ford died in 1943 at Gaukler Point, in his lakeside home in Grosse Pointe Shores, at the age of 49. All of Edsel Ford's nonvoting stock was donated to the Ford Foundation, which he had founded with his father seven years earlier. He is buried at Woodlawn Cemetery in Detroit. His wife Eleanor continued living in their home until her death in 1976. It was her wish that the property be used for "the benefit of the public." The Edsel and Eleanor Ford House is now open to the public. Located on 87 acres, the house has an excellent collection of the Fords' original antiques and art, and the historical landscape grounds on the lakefront. The museum currently hosts tours, classes, lectures, and special events. The property is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Each of Edsel Ford's children inherited sizable shares in the Ford Motor Company, and the three sons all worked in the family business. On Edsel's death, his father briefly reassumed the presidency of Ford, then Edsel's son, Henry Ford II, became president of the company on September 21, 1945.

Edsel Ford was one of the most significant art benefactors in Detroit history. As president of the Detroit Arts Commission, he commissioned the famous Diego Rivera Detroit Industry Murals in the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA). He was an early collector of African art and his contributions became part of the core of the original DIA African art collection. After his death, his family continued to make significant contributions. He also helped finance exploratory expeditions, including the historic flight of Admiral Richard Byrd over the North Pole in 1926 as well as Byrd's Antarctic expeditions.

In September 1957, Ford Motor Company unveiled a new division of cars called Edsel. The Edsel division included the Citation, Corsair, Pacer, Ranger, Bermuda, Villager, and Roundup models. The Edsel division is remembered as a significant commercial failure. The cars sold moderately well in their first year, but the Edsel division was discontinued soon after the 1960 models were introduced.

Historically yours, Bob & Karen

Pizza party highlights

On November 12, 2023, the club had its first fall indoor meeting for 2023 and enjoyed pizza from Jetz pizza and a variety of cookies. Prior to the pizza arriving and just to have some fun, the group tested their knowledge on a twenty-question trivia contest with information taken from 2023 issues of Wheeling the A. Kwik Trip gift cards were given to the top three club members with the most correct answers. Tony and Staci Koconis got 18 correct answers, and John Beckner and Dave and Donna Boucher tied for second place with 17 correct. Congratulations to those winners. Everyone enjoyed the pizza, good conversation and some laughs. It was good to see the membership and also welcome those new members who joined us.
